*A PROPOSAL for Publishing a general
Repertory of the Endowments of Vicarages.*

THIS Work is intended for the Service both of Vicars and of their Parishioners. The former usually come into their Livings unacquainted with the Particulars of their legal Incomes; most of which are small, and many quite insufficient: whence they are sometimes tempted to demand more than their Dues. But oftener, they who should pay them, take Advantage of the Ignorance or Doubtfulness of their Minister concerning his Rights, and refuse to acknowledge them. If he submits to take what they are willing to allow him, he lives in Straits and Contempt. If he contests the Matter, his People become prejudiced against him for some Time, if not for ever; and there is great Danger of failing in his Cause for want of sufficient Proofs and proper Evidence, the principal of which are ancient Endowments.

For a Vicar may demand what his Vicarage was endowed with, and he cannot demand more, unless imme-

immemorial Usage gives Ground for a just Presumption, that there was a further Endowment, though not now extant. Therefore Discoveries of Endowments will tend, not only to the right Determination of Law-Suits, but to the Prevention of them, by shewing both Parties, to what they are intitled : and thus will be of common Benefit, to the Clergy, to Impropriators, and to the rest of the Laity.

The most likely Places to find them in, are the Registries of the Bishop, or Dean and Chapter of the Diocese. But, partly by Means of national Changes and Confusions that have happened, partly through the Unfaithfulness or Negligence of Officers, and partly through other Accidents, many of the Books, belonging to these Registries, are lost from thence: and not a few of them, and likewise of the Chartularies and Leiger Books of dissolved religious Houses, in which they recorded, amongst other Things, the Endowments of their Vicarages, are now in various Libraries and Repositories, public and private. A List of these Endowments, with References to the Manuscripts in which they are contained, would certainly be a very useful Directory to Multitudes of Persons, who else would never know, where to seek for them:

An

General Repertory of Endowments of Vicarages. v

An Account, which of them have been printed, and in what Works, may save both Trouble and Expence to those who desire to consult them, and even in Cases where no Endowments are to be found, preventing a fruitless Search will be doing some good.

Therefore the Editor of this Proposal hopes, that the Publick will approve of his Undertaking: in which he hath proceeded so far, as to set down, in alphabetical Order, the Names with the Dates, &c. of every Endowment in the Diocese of Canterbury, which he hath been able to discover in the Registries of that See, the Lambeth, Cotton, Harleian, and other Libraries, or in printed Books. He now presumes to beg, that the several Bishops would favour him with the Names, and Dates, of all Endowments, which are in their respective Registries: and that the same Assistance may be given him by such of the Nobility, Clergy, and Gentry, as have in their Custody antient Records of any Kind, in which Endowments are entered.

This Repertory of the Endowments of Vicarages in the Diocese of Canterbury, is subjoined as a Specimen of the Method which the Editor proposes to follow:

vi A PROPOSAL for publishing, &c.

follow: who wishes, that the Informations given him may be drawn up in the same Manner; unless any Improvements of it shall be suggested by his Superiors, or other Persons conversant in these Matters, to whose Judgment and Correction he intirely submits his Scheme.
